Maitre D's Special Reserve

WHITE WINE

34 SILVERADO, SAUVIGNON BLANC Napa Valley
These vineyards are owned by Ron Miller (former president of Disney Productions) and Diana Disney Miller (Walt Disney's eldest daughter). Exceptional care is taken to produce a fruit forward, crisp, example of this varietal.

49 PINOT GRIGIO, SANTA MARGHERITA Veneto
This Italian favorite was discovered in 1961 by a young winemaker from the Santa Margherita winery. He decided to use the white wine vinification techniques used to produce French Champagne on their best Pinot Grigio grapes.

61 CHASSAGNE-MONTRACHET Côte de Beaune
Located in the south of the Côte de Beaune France, Chassagne-Montrachet is one of the five villages giving the "Côte des Blanc" its worldwide prestige. This beautiful white Burgundy hails from the Chardonnay grape.

4 MOËT & CHANDON, DOM PERIGNON Epernay
Dom Perignon is named after the famous French monk who is credited with inventing and developing Champagne as we know it today. Dom Perignon is probably the most famous Champagne of all and is of exceptional quality.

RED WINE

122 SEGHESIO, OLD VINE ZINFANDEL Sonoma
Zinfandel is classified as a native American grape variety. Seghesio Old Vine is made from grapes grown on over 90-year-old vines and regularly features among Wine Spectator's "Top 100 Wines".

81 DON MELCHOR Puente Alto
More than 100 years ago, Don Melchor de Concha y Toro founded Viña Concha y Toro with his wife Emiliana Subercaseaux. Don Melchor's favorite anecdote was to name his cellar - The Devil's Wine Cellar (Casillero Del Diablo). Don Melchor's wish was to keep his choicest wines from prying eyes and lips, as well as the temptation to steal, by spreading the word that the devil himself dwelled in the cellar. The wine, named in honor of its founder now regularly features in Wine Spectator's "Top 100 Wines".

95 DUCKHORN PARADUXX Napa Valley
Since Duckhorn Paraduxx's premier release in 1994, the vineyard has taken great care in commissioning a different artist for each vintage. The original works, are transformed into the well-known stamp labels that depict a pair of ducks on each bottle.

142 ORNELLAIA Toscana
Marchese Lodovico Antinori's dream was to create a truly exceptional wine and in 2001 his dream was fulfilled when Wine Spectator honored it as being the #1 wine in the world.This is an exceptional value for one of the most prestigious wines in the world.

82 CAYMUS VINEYARDS SPECIAL SELECTION Napa Valley
Since its founding in 1972, the Wagner family have focused the vineyard's attention, almost solely, on the production of Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon. The Caymus Vineyards "Special Selection" is only produced in vintages that Chuck Wagner feels are truly exceptional and appropriate for this bottling.

96 OPUS 1, MONDAVI-ROTHSCHILD Napa Valley
A much sought-after premier Californian wine, Opus One is made in the best of French traditions, through a joint venture between Robert Mondavi and Baron Phillipe de Rothschild - and its fame speaks for itself.
